Is there hope
for our world?

The background of the slide is a photograph of a hilly landscape, likely the Holy Land, with rolling green hills under a clear blue sky.

But you will receive power
when the Holy Spirit has come upon you;
and you will be my witnesses

in Jerusalem (ch2-7),
and in all Judea and Samaria (ch8-11),
and to the end of the earth (ch12-28).

Acts 1:8 (ESV)

- With the Crippled Man
  - (3:1-11) no silver or gold ...
- To the Crowds
  - (3:12-26) repent and turn back ...
- To the Sanhedrin
  - (4:1-22) salvation in no one else ...
- With the Believers
  - (4:23-31) grant [us] all boldness ...

7 And when they had set them in the midst,
they inquired,

“By what power or by what name
did you do this?”

Acts 4:7 (ESV) (p.1/4)

8 Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit,
said to them, “Rulers of the people and elders,

9 if we are being examined today concerning
a good deed done to a crippled man,
by what means this man has been healed,

Acts 4:8-9 (ESV) (p.2/4)

10 let it be known to all of you
and to all the people of Israel

that by the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth,
whom you crucified,
whom God raised from the dead —

by him this man is standing before you well.

Acts 4:10 (ESV) (p.3/4)

11 This Jesus is the stone
that was rejected by you, the builders,
which has become the cornerstone.

12 And there is salvation in no one else,
for there is no other name under heaven
given among men by which we must be saved.”

Acts 4:11-12 (ESV) (p.4/4)

Acts 4:9 (ESV)

standing beside them,

photomechanical after Raphael

A detailed black and white engraving depicting a scene from the Acts of the Apostles. In the center, a lame man with a wooden crutch lies on the ground, looking up at two figures, Peter and John, who are standing over him. Peter is pointing his right hand towards the lame man. To the left, another figure, possibly a woman, looks on. The background shows architectural elements like columns and a cloudy sky.

Men of Israel, why do you wonder at this,
or why do you stare at us,
as though by our own power or piety
we have made him walk?

Acts 3:12 (ESV)

Acts 4:10 (ESV)

when they saw the boldness of Peter and John,
and perceived that they were
uneducated, common men,
they were astonished.

And they recognized that they had been with Jesus.

Acts 4:13 (ESV)

Nikolas Bodarevsky, "Trial of the Apostle Paul", 1875

And now, Lord, look upon their threats
and grant to your servants to continue
to speak your word with all boldness,

while you stretch out your hand to heal,
and signs and wonders are performed
through the name of your holy servant Jesus.

Acts 4:29 (ESV)

be known?

This Jesus is the stone
that was rejected by you, the builders,
which has become the cornerstone.

Acts 4:11 (ESV)

Edouard Moyse, "Le Grand Sanhedrin", 1868

What else does this craving,
and this helplessness, proclaim ...?

This he tries in vain to fill
with everything around him,
though none can help,

since this infinite abyss can be filled
only ... by God himself

Blaise Pascal, “Pensees”

The background image shows a large, ornate building with a prominent green dome and two smaller spires. The building has intricate architectural details and is set against a sky with warm, orange and yellow hues of a sunset or sunrise. A flag flies from a pole on top of the dome.

The stone that the builders rejected
has become the cornerstone.

23 This is the LORD's doing;
it is marvelous in our eyes.

Psalm 118:22-23 (ESV)

Julian Böck

Behold, I am laying in Zion a stone,
a cornerstone chosen and precious,

and whoever believes in him
will not be put to shame.

But for those who do not believe, ...

8 “A stone of stumbling,
and a rock of offense.”

They stumble because they disobey the word,
as they were destined to do.

20 and that he may send
the Christ appointed for you, Jesus
